Notice of Medicare Non-Coverage

Patient name: _____ Patient number: _____

Medicare Coverage of Your Current Skilled Nursing Services Will End on _____

Your provider and/or Senior Care Plus health plan determined that Medicare probably won't pay for your skilled nursing services after the above date. You may have to pay for any services you get after this date.

Your right to appeal this decision

- You have the right to appeal the decision to end Medicare coverage of your services. This means you'll get an independent medical review right away. Your services will continue during the appeal.
- If you choose to appeal, the independent reviewer will ask for your opinion. You don't have to prepare anything in writing, but you have the right to do so. The reviewer also will look at your medical records and/or other relevant information.
- Once you ask for an appeal, you'll get a notice with a detailed explanation about why your service coverage should end.
- If the independent reviewer agrees Medicare coverage for your services should end, neither Medicare nor your plan will pay for these services after the above date.
- If you stop services by the above date, you'll avoid financial liability.

How to ask for an immediate appeal

- Ask for the appeal as soon as possible. You must ask for a timely appeal no later than noon of the day before the above date.
- Make your request to your Quality Improvement Organization (QIO). A QIO is the independent reviewer authorized by Medicare.
- If you miss the deadline to ask for an immediate appeal, you may still have appeal rights.
- Call your QIO at Livanta (877) 588-1123 to appeal, or if you have questions.
- Contact Senior Care Plus for assistance or additional information regarding the appeal process at Senior Care Plus Customer Service (775)982-3112.

What happens next

- The QIO will let you know its decision as soon as possible, generally no later than two days after the effective date above. If you're in a Medicare health plan, the QIO generally will let you know its decision by the effective date above.
- Call your QIO at Livanta (877)588-1123 to learn more.
